Here comes the sunshine
To brighten my day
There go my worries
I've washed them away
Now I have blue skies
Not grey

Out of the darkness, into the light
Everything's madness, but hey that's just life
I just need someone to kiss me goodnight

Ooh, ooh, ooh - right from the start
Ooh, ooh, ooh - my fragile heart
Ooh, ooh, ooh - tears me apart
Ooh, ooh, ooh - my fragile heart

So long ago
When love was young
So much to give
And no one to blame
And I just need shelter

Every day I'll fight but I'm hidin' away
Most times I can't find what to say
I need someone to take it away

Ooh, ooh ooh, - right from the start
Ooh, ooh, ooh - my fragile heart
Ooh, ooh, ooh - tears me apart
Ooh, ooh, ooh - my fragile heart

Here comes the sunshine
To brighten my day
