I understand that you don't want me
But I won't get down and I won't be lonely
I'll pick a better someone who will stay here by my side
I loved it while it lasted but that is by the by

Just kiss my cheek and I'll be on my way
Leave your last impression on my face
I won't break
I won't cry
All I ask as I say goodbye
Is just kiss my cheek and I 'll be on my way

My heart is fine
A fracture at worst dear
This guarded being is hard to hurt here
In many years to come I will be happy as can be
And you can rest assured I won't be wishing you're with me

Just kiss my cheek and I'll be on my way
Leave your last impression on my face
I won't break
I won't cry
All I ask as I say goodbye
Is just kiss my cheek and I'll be on my way

So stand and look me in the eye
Heart thumping in your chest
And tell me that you truly believe this is for the best
Then...

Please kiss my lips and I'll be on my way
Now I will admit that my heart did break
But I'm ok
I won't cry
All I ask as I say goodbye
Is please kiss my lips and I'll be on my way
