Are you alright my love
Lately I feel like I'm just not enough
You said we'd be okay when things got tough
But I can see that you are thinking stuff

Are you okay my dear
There's something wrong with you I know, I fear
Your face is changing and these lines appear
Lines that tell me you're not happy here

Are you, are you my love
Are you, are you my love leaving again

There's times when I had thought
That this was something, maybe now it's not
Am I the plastic girl that love forgot
I'll place my heart into the ground to rot

No sense of urgency
For you or anyone to rescue me
I guess this is how I'm meant to be
But do you know how much you meant to me

Are you, are you my love
Are you, are you my love leaving again

Are you alright my love
I can see now our time has been quite rough
I tried to change but change for me is tough
Now you can find someone who is enough

Goodbye, goodbye my love
Goodbye, goodbye my love
You're leaving, it's the end
