I'm in your house, in your room, in your bed, will you be home soon

I'm in your mind, in your dreams, more of a nightmare it would seem

Runaway runaway runaway out
You're never gonna catch me and I'm never gonna stop Runaway runaway but you'll never hide

I'm in your car, at your work, stuck in your heart, I know it hurts

I'm in your life, everywhere, try as you might, I'm not going anywhere

Runaway runaway runaway out
You're never gonna catch me and I'm never gonna stop
Runaway runaway but you'll never hide

You can run, you can hide, I will always find you
You can scream, you can cry, maybe look behind you Are you afraid now, are you afraid now, are you afraid now
You should be

Runaway runaway runaway out
You're never gonna catch me and I'm never gonna stop
Runaway runaway but you'll never hide
