I miss my home and I haven't even left yet
I'm leaving the sunrise for the place where the sun sets
It's time to say goodbye but i've forgotten how to cry
And I wonder, ?Why has my eye been dry for so long??

I'm riding this road that i've ridden many times before
But I won't ride this road many times anymore
That doesn't mean I won't keep the memory
Safe with me in a briefcase of my own history

Death's made a cold blade and cut my heart in two
But it's time to peel the band-aid and time to love again

Home

Let go of my fears
I want to feel
Let go of my tears
I'm too quick to heal
