Everyone who was walking before me
One by one they melted just like wax
And I'm thinking how and how to save me
I closed my eyes and hid in a vitreous box

I was from there and I began to know
How to listen and look all around
Yes 'cause light now was too intense out
It crept my eyelids until the bound

And then the magic light gave me the way to shape Transparent and floating figures in the middle of the way
The slowly flashing colours were still blinding
At the sight of this great prodigy I could just gapeÃ¢â€Œ!gapeÃ¢â€Œ!gape

Mine is a shelter, not a prison
But I feel just like it's all the same
Really boundless, without any reason
I'm moving in this cold settled game

Like an isolated lighthouse keeper
I try to send my light so far away
The shadows all around become deeper
And how many ships still lose the way?
And then the magic light gave me the way to shape
Transparent and floating figures in the middle of the
way
The slowly flashing colours were still blinding
At the sight of this great prodigy, I could just
gapeÃ¢â€Œ!gapeÃ¢â€Œ!gape

But now the dark is, is all around me
And I realize I'm still alone
The universe now is perfect, but Maybe I've lost something down there

Certainly, Lord, I didn't know this
When I was leaving for this trip
But now I've come until here
And I forget the way to go back

And then the magic light gave me the way to shape
Transparent and floating figures in the middle of the
way
The slowly flashing colours were still blinding
At the sight of this great prodigy, I could just
