Running from the shadow tonight
Like a child, enclosed in a shell
Build my life
I leave a rotten earth
Where the worms
Are a sign of the way you're livin' on
You live on

What I've done
On my old way ã€!
I'm no more so sure to know
On a row
Wherever I'll go
I'll crave for not coming back

Takin' a look from a distance
I see a man busy in hidin' himself
A broken life
And the wind already runs
To destroy
The only one part of us we lead
A life for

What I've done
On my old way ã€!
I'm no more so sure to know
On a row
Wherever I'll go
I'll crave for not coming back
