Since I met you baby
I feel that you somehow saved me
You're smile lets me know that you're heart warmly glows
It took forever to find eternity
Took forever to find eternity

Time flew by me
Now I understand you see
Time played a waiting game
It seems you felt the same
Oh it took forever to find eternity... Yeah yeah yeh
It took forever to find eternity

When love passes by
No-one really understands why
But time will help you'll see
Another wait, it's not too late

To find eternity

Oh love is now set free

The waiting game was the key
And when I see you standing there
Everything now seems fair
It took forever to find eternity... Yeah yeh eh
It took forever to find eternity

When love passes by
No-one really understands why
But time will help you'll see
Another wait, it's not too late

To find eternity

Oh love is now set free
The waiting game was the key
And when I see you standing there
Everything now seems fair
It took forever to find eternity... Yeah yeah yeh
It took forever to find eternity

It took forever, It took forever
It took forever to find eternity
