Lots of people talking to you and they know
Inside is another picture show
You gotta believe it 'cos
What does it take to take control
Of the things in your life
What does it take to wake a soul
And step inside your mind
Step inside your life
Step inside your mind
Step inside your life

Lots of people faking, what do they know
Inside and out you've gotta let it grow
You better believe it 'cos
What does it take to win control
Of the things in your life
What does it take to dig a hole
And step inside your mind
Step inside your life
Step inside your mind
Step inside your life

[Solo]

You better believe it 'cos
What does it take to win control
Of the things in your life
What does it take to dig a hole
And step inside your mind
And step inside your life
Step inside your mind
Step inside your life

Step inside your mind
Step inside your life
Step inside your mind
Step, step, step inside your life
Step, step, step inside your mind
Step, step, step inside your life
Step, step, step inside your mind
Step, step, step inside your life

Step, step, step inside your mind
Step, step, step inside your life
Step, step, step inside your mind
