Just A Baby Child

You're just a baby child, oh, you got some child's way.
You're just a baby child, yeah, you got some child's way.

And I know I keep on loving you, baby.
Yeah, you gonna show me my day.
Sometimes I wanna hold you, yeah, and again I wanna put you down.

Sometimes I wanna hold you, baby, yeah, and again I wanna put you down.

But I know I can't quit you, mama.
And no more love like yours around.
You know it ain't around.

Well, I know I quit you now, baby, oh, I have to leave this town.

You're just a baby child, keep on crying all the time.
You're just a baby child, keep crying all the time.

I give you everything I got now, baby.
Yeah, I give you my last dime.

She's a baby.
So sweet.

And I'm worrying about.

I got to hold you, got to hold on to you, baby.
I got to hold you, baby, yes, I ain't never let you go.
You worry me so bad sometimes.

But, baby, I'm glad that you worry me so more.
Still a baby.
