Ev'ry Night About This Time
Words and Music by Ted Koehler and James V. Monaco
Performed by The Ink Spots (1942)

Ev'ry night about this time,
Oh! how I miss you,
I drift into our old rendezvous
Ev'ry night about this time.

The gang keeps on asking why your not aroun',
And I keep pretending that you're just out of town.

Ev'ry night about this time,
Memories haunt me,
Wondering too who's dancing with you
Ev'ry night about this time.

And when ever they croon our favorite tune,
A tear falls with ev'ry rhyme,
Oh! how I miss you,
Ev'ry Night about this time.

Whistle through first verse again while spoken:
Ev'ry night about this time,
That's when I miss you
I drift in and out all our old rendezvous'
Ev'ry night just about this time
The gang keeps on askin'
"Say boy, Where's your gal,
How come she ain't aroun'?"
Well, I just keep on pretendin'
That you went out of town.

Sing:
Ev'ry night about this time,
Memories haunt me,
Wondering too who's dancing with you
Ev'ry night about this time.

And whenever they croon our favorite tune,
A tear falls with ev'ry rhyme,

Oh! how I miss you,
Ev'ry Night about this time.
