Hey, hey, hey, my sister
Where have you been?
I've been looking all over for you
In this world where we don't fit in

I said, hey, hey, hey, my brother
Where have you gone?
I've been trying to recognize your face
In this world where we don't belong

There's a light that shines on everyone
It shines on me and it shines on you
There's a light that shines on everyone
One day, I'm gonna have to see it through

There's a light that shines on everyone
It shines on me and it shines on you
There's a light that shines on everyone

That is what I say
I'm gonna try to find a new way
That is what I see
A Northwest Passage for you and me

Hey, hey, hey, my comrade
Strike a pose for me
Overheard you talking about resistance
Other things that might set us free

Hey, hey, hey, my lover
Cuddle up inside
I wanna hug you then I wanna kiss you
I wanna make you mine tonight

That is what I say
I'm gonna try to find a new way
That is what I see
A Northwest Passage for you and me

I blow my mind for you everyday
That's what I said
I blow my mind for you everyday

Blow my mind for you everyday
That's what I said
I blow my mind for you everyday

Turn on your love lights
Let them shine on me
I said, turn on your love lights
Let them shine on me

I said, turn on your love lights
Let them shine on me
I said, turn on your love lights
Let them shine down on me

Hey, hey, hey, my sister
Where have you been?
Hey, hey, hey, my brother
We don't fit in

There's a light that shines on everyone
It shines on me and it shines on you
There's a light that shines on everyone
One day, I'm gonna have to see it through

Hey, hey, hey, my sister
Hey, hey, hey, my brother
Hey, hey, my comrade
Hey, hey, hey, my little lover

Said, hey, hey, hey, my sister
Hey, hey, hey, my brother
Hey, hey, my comrade
Hey, hey, hey, my little lover

Said, there's a light that shines on everyone
There's a light that shines on everyone
There's a light that shines on everyone
There's a light that shines on everyone

There's a light that shines on everyone
There's a light that shines on everyone
There's a light that shines on everyone
There's a light that shines on everyone
