We must abolish work not just a cheap cliché
Just another trick to make the workers pay
We must erase the time line please baby please
We will end up dying on our bare knees

We must destroy culture free commodity
Their executives are all that you believe, yeah
We must abolish work not just a cheap cliché
Just another trick

We must abolish work not just a cheap cliché
Just another trick to make the workers pay
We must erase the time line please, pretty please
We will end up dying on our bare knees

We must destroy culture free commodity
Their executives are all that you believe, yeah
We must abolish work not just a cheap cliché
Just another trick to turn us all into slaves

Come on now, where you been?
I say open up you say let me in
Come on now, where you been?
I say please just say just say when

Come on now, where you been?
I say open up you say let me in
Come on now, where you been?
I say please, just say, just say when

Reject the time line, I'm losing my mind
Reject the time line, ooh we'll stay in line
Reject the time line, I'm losing my mind
Reject the time line, ooh we'll stay in line

Reject the time line, I'm losing my mind
Reject the time line, and ooh we'll stay in line
Reject the time line, I'm losing my mind
Reject the time line ooh

Yeah, yeah, yeah, I'm losing my mind
Yeah, yeah, yeah, I'm losing my mind yeah
