I see the faces everywhere I wanna see them all, and I see the monikers written on the wall Starts like an echo turns into a roar, the sound of silence never heard before We meet them everyday, the ones that gives us strength to make it possible all in all, all in all
To find it right here, it's nothing new, to find it right here within all we do Stories have been spoken struggles we've been through, look at these history to see what we can do To get together we're still learning how, the times are changing and our time is now
We meet them everyday, the ones that gives us
here within all we do
It's time to hold on, it's time to reach out...
To find it right here, it's nothing new, to find it right
here within all we do
It's time to hold on, it's time to reach out...
