Wait a second,
will everything turn out fine?
will we get what we are promised, Or our we just wasting our time? tell me something, tell me something what about living right now?
cause I can't believe this is waht we want to be

we feel it right now
baby it's not for me
its time to get up and live
the dream is over, hey
the dream is over you see its not coming back to me just a minute its not the life we wanted to get its comes a little too late, baby we can't afford it maybe someday, maybe someday we won't be living as slaves

that this is waht we want to be
baby it's not for me
the dream is over,

the dream is over
