Unofficial Song Translation

Created in the image of mankind
In the form of a man and a woman Double was his sin said his son
For all of eternity a never-ending war
My soul leaves no one sees don't deject but soothe My philosophy, always correct?
It is better to accept than to give said the rich one and all his class I who taught here so many things but no one listened - that troubled me but I learnt that life here was hard after all, it was I who hung on the cross An honest loner, that was I, that I swear but the broad road was easier to pass that road I walk and the cross I bear
