Darlin', oh...

When we get married,
We'll have a big celebration,
And send invitations,
To all our friends and relations.

We'll have a ball,
Dancin' and all,
When we get married.

When the bells ring,
And tell the world I'm taking your hands,
Folks from all over,
Will come to see the wedding we planned.

We'll have a ball,
Dancin' and all,
When we get married.

(We'll have a time)
We'll have a time,
And darling,
We'll be, oh-so gay, hmmm.
(We'll have a ball)
We'll have a ball
(Dancing and all)
And darling,
We'll be as one.

Just wait and see,
Our wedding day,
Is not very far.
Old folks will whisper,
And say how lovely,
We both are.

We'll have a ball,
Dancin' and all!
... When we get married.
