Won't you try and make this easy
All you ever do is tease me
It's my heart and time with which you play
Deep inside I'm slowly dying
Like a child I'm always crying
Everytime I try to walk away I stay
Can't stop loving you but I want it to
And I try, oh I try
Can't stop wanting you. All the things you do
And I cry, oh I cry
Where is your love gone, where is your love
Where is your love. Can't stop loving you.
Every night I'm trying to call you
To tell you how much I adore you
Yes you are the sunshine in my day
If I ever change your mind
You'll find me waiting all this time
My love won't die, it just goes on and on
