Verse:

There's a lock I can't break, a girl I can't take

There's a word she won't say, a feeling that won't go away

Chorus:

Falling so close, falling so close, finding it so hard to let go

Verse:

There's a door halfway open, see the girl who thinks she's broken

There's an emptiness I'm tired of knowing, a chance that keeps me hoping

Chorus:

When you're falling so close, falling so close, finding it so hard to let go

You're flying high and when you come back down falling, falling so close

Bridge:

Up in the clouds touching a burning sky, caught in the wind touching a burning sky

I'd be there with you if I could fly, you make me come alive

Chorus:

Falling so close, falling so close, finding it so hard to let go

You're flying high and when you come back down falling, falling so close
