Ohh yeah yeah

You said that you love me
And that wasn't all
You said that you'd be there wherever I fall
We had everything planed out
On what we should do
Everything turned gray and it didn't come true

Chorus:

I wish that we can turn back the hands of time
Cause I'll do so different next try
It was just like we were hugging yesterday (yesterday)
cause I never thought it could even be this way (be this way)
I cry so hard and I don't know what to say (I don't know what to say)
When I try to move on (try and move on)
Try and be strong
I hope that I wont be alone
But I will try and move on (try and move on)
Cause life must go on
I guess your where you belong

I just wanna feel you (wanna feel you)
Wherever you are (wherever you are)
I know your still with me cause its in my heart
When my love gonna find you (its gonna find you)
Where you go (wherever you go)
That I do promise I'll never let go

Chorus:

I wish that we can turn back the hands of time (ohhh I wish)
Cause I'll do so different next try (next try)
It was just like we were hugging yesterday (yesterday)
because I never thought it could even be this way (be this way)
I cry so hard and I don't know what to say (I don't know what to say)
When I try to move on (try and move on)

Try and be strong (and tell me yet that I'm going to carry on)
I hope that I don't be alone
But I will try to move on (try and move on)
Cause life must go on (try try)
I guess your where you belong

I'm going to see you again
Yah yah yah yah see you again
lalaldada
