"My Scandinavian Ride"

I see your eyes they catch my smile
Traces of life leap down my spine
So unsuccessful in the past
Breath of fresh air touches my face
For the first time let's break this trend let's break this trend
It hits me hard for the first time let's break this trend
Lift me up from where I've fallen
Venturing over, take my hand, lead me now emotionally
I can't believe this is happening
My desperation's overcome
For the first time let's break this trend let's break this trend
Lift me up from where I've fallen
You lift me up from where I've fallen
Put everything back where it's supposed to be
You open my eyes and show me what is there
