You can make your point
I can disagree
But it will not change
What you mean to me
Did it go too far
Are we to the edge
Is there some way I can
Talk you down from the ledge
We can turn away from each other
Or we can turn it back around

Maybe I'm wrong
Maybe your're right
Baby don't let this wounded pride
Drive a wedge between us
Wherever we go
Whatever we do
I know we'll never make it through
If we try to stand alone
We need love to lean on

We can make some changes
We can make this work
We can fix what's broken
We can heal the hurt
Take a new direction
Now it's up to us
What we do in anger we can do in love
'cause anything that's worth the having
Is worth fighting for

Maybe I'm wrong
Maybe your're right
Baby don't let this wounded pride
Drive a wedge between us
Wherever we go
Whatever we do
I know we'll never make it through
If we try to stand alone
We need love to lean on
Love to lean on

On and on and on
Love to keep us strong
