Why do you sing to everybody but me?
Why do I let it go on?
You know that you've got such a music box song
In my head all day long

Fell for a girl with wild eyes
Dressed in satin and lace
Oh, but she's just an empty diamond mine
With a moan across her face

I can love you much better
If you can't see it, you're blind
I can love you much better
Oh, you know someday
I'm gonna make you mine

You are the daydream in my eyes
There whenever I wake up
But the colors never crystalize
And I never get enough

Why do you kiss everybody but me?
I just sit back and watch
Oh, but one day soon
I'm gonna grab you by the collar
Kiss you all I want

I can love you much better
If you can't see it, you're blind
I can love you much better
Oh, you know someday
I'm gonna make you mine

I can love you much better
If you can't see it, you're blind
I can love you much better
Oh, you know someday
I'm gonna make you mine

I can love you much better
If you can't see it, you're blind

I can love you much better
Oh, you know someday
I'm gonna make you mine

I can love you much better
If you can't see it, you're blind
I can love you much better
Oh, you know someday
I'm gonna make you mine

I can love you, I can love you
I can love you all right
I can love you much better
And you know someday
I'm gonna make you mine
