You waited your whole life for things to change
You held breath so long you've got nothin' to say to me

Goodbye, I got friends
And sometimes we just get high
So don't try to pretend, don't even try

'Cause you had what everyone wants, don't you know?
You just watched everything die and you let a good thing go

I've built a brand new life, made a brand new start
So shame on you, you selfish fool
You broke your own damn heart

Goodbye, I got friends
And somethings you can't deny
So don't try and defend, don't even try

'Cause you had what everyone wants, don't you know?
You just watched everything die, yeah you let a good
You had what everyone wants, don't you know?
You just watched everything die, yeah you let a good

Did you get what you want from me?
I've done things you can't believe
I'm not that person anymore
I'm so much different than before
You have no idea
You have no idea

You waited your whole life for things to change
You held your breath for so long you got nothin' to say to me

Goodbye, I got friends and sometimes we just get high
So don't try to defend, don't even try

You had what everyone wants, don't you know?

You just watched everything die, yeah you let a good
You had what everyone wants, don't you know?
You just watched everything die, yeah you let a good
