Concentrate
Don't you know
These are the days that leave you empty
They're leaving you cold
And say to me
As we grow old
These are the days that last forever
Never let it go

And I braved what I could
And I stand where you stood
And I never breathed a word

And I could pray
You'd never leave
This constant ache
I do believe
Reach down and deliver it
And swear to me
Now ever since
I hold my side
You're not convinced
And I'm told it's deliberate

And I braved what I could
And I stand where you stood
And leave
Please watch, please watch over me

I thought this day would never come
Dealing with the sad one
And I stay away, I'm deaf and dumb
We're telling everyone, oh god it's priceless
(Repeat)
And I braved what I could
And I stand where you stood
And leave
Please watch, please watch over me

I thought this day would never come
Dealing with the sad one
And I stay away, I'm deaf and dumb

We're telling everyone, oh god it's priceless
(Repeat)

And I never breathed a word
And I never breathed a word (And I stand)
And I never breathed a word (Where you stood)
And I never breathed a word (And I swear I...)
And I never breathed a word
And I never breathed a word (And I stand)
And I never breathed a word (Where you stood)
And I never breathed a word (And I Swear I...)
And I never breathed a word
And I never breathed a word (And I stand)
And I never breathed a word (Where you stood)
And I never breathed a word (And I swear I...)
And I never breathed a word
And I never breathed a word (And I stand)
And I never breathed a word (Where you stood)
And I never breathed a word (And I swear I...)
And I never breathed a word
