You see her dancing out on the floor Sunday you need love Monday be alone
you wanna wanna wanna have her like before Sunday you need love Monday be alone but you gonna use her, shape her for your needs
Sunday you need love Monday be alone
you gonna make promises you never never keep,
Sunday you need love Monday be alone
you gonna leave her out on her own, Sunday you need
love Monday be alone
cause Sunday you need love love Monday be alone lone
Sunday you need love Monday be alone
Hey you you you you tender young lady wonder where you go, where you sleep tonight Hey you everlovin woman
beware you don't pass the borderlines of light
You gonna use her use her, shape her for your needs
Sunday you need love Monday be alone
You gonna make promises you never never keep
Sunday you need love Monday be alone
You gonna leave her out on her own Sunday you need
love Monday be alone
cause sometimes you want her want her then again you don't Sunday you need love Monday be alone Sunday you need love love Monday be alone lone
Sunday you need love Monday be alone
Hey you you you you, tender young lady
wonder where you go, where you sleep tonight
Hey you, everlovin woman
beware you don't pass the borderlines of light Better find someone else, to treat you well better find a good man to give you some respect begin the rockin'
Hey you you you you, tender young lady
