You're My Morning

Lover, you are messing with my senses,
I'm covered, in everything your soul is sending,
Waking up...

CHORUS

Daylight, breaks through the dark night,
Bringing everything to life, you're my morning,
My soul shakes, from a bad dream awake,
To a certain state of grace, you're my morning.

So lost, in a mist of listless vision,
(I was) Storm tossed, 'til your beacon brought this ship
in,
I'm waking up...

CHORUS

BRIDGE

Darkest desperate moments shatter,
When you shine like a sun...

CHORUS 2X
