An outside struggle i should've seen it coming but instead i turn and run it away When she knew what she was doing each night she started proving Who needs trouble like this anyway?
Well i know what i like and i know it's not right so i put up my fists and i put up a fight Outside screaming, we're all looking for the truth Blinded by our hatred, blinded by our youth A dim light shines in hope that you might find a second chance to live the rest of your days But you ain't seen night Just know you left me runnin' from the east coast into the bay...
An eye for an eye
A tooth for a tooth
Brothers fight each other all looking for the truth
Running around thinking they're bullet-proof
