There was a riot inside that took us by surprise, But you can't say it's something we choose to leave behind,
Some came running, I know what else was done, When you can't see something, You know what I have done. I know someone who never should have gone, And there's a riot inside tonight!! I know someone who never should have gone, And there's a riot inside tonight!! A riot inside tonight, A riot inside tonight. A riot inside that teaches all a lie, But you can't stretch the truth, When choose to step aside, Some came running, I know what else was done, When you try to lose something, That you know is on the run. I know someone who never should have gone, And there's a riot inside tonight!! I know someone who never should have gone, And there's a riot inside tonight!! A riot inside tonight, A riot inside tonight. A riot inside that teaches all a lie, But you can't stretch the truth, When choose to step aside, Some came running, I know what else was done, When you try to lose something, That you know is on the run. I know someone who never should have gone, And there's a riot inside tonight!! I know someone who never should have gone, And there's a riot inside tonight!! A riot inside tonight, A riot inside tonight, A riot inside tonight.
