Smile in this space, It's all loud
Loud as the light can be made
Smile in this space, It's all loud
Loud as the light can be made

How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?

Under the bed, these boxes
Wait for the spring, to bring me near
It makes me see, it's all wrong
Let's have some time while you're healing

How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?

It's clear
I've squeezed
The Last Drop
The Last Drop
The Last Drop
The Last Drop

Pieces come together, pull the mist like needles
Fighting for the leap when we can rise like spirals

How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?
How come it's all around me?
