I'll put you in my book of valentines
Address unknown but we sure had a good time
Your number must have slipped my busy mind
But I'll remember you, at least until the next time I get lucky
The next time I get lucky

Losing my virginity was a career move
I'm gonna miss you, God bless you
Maybe you'll lose your mind trying to turn back time
But I'll be standing strong

Guess what I won't be here when you wake up
So don't expect no breakfast by your bedside
Repeating days we never spent together
Mark my words, a shared bed is double joy
A shared bed is double joy

Losing my virginity was a career move
I'm gonna miss you, God bless you
Maybe you'll lose your mind trying to turn back time
But I'll be standing strong

My dancing's just a vertical expression of my horizontal desires
And your kisses make the expectations
Of this evening get higher and higher

Losing my virginity was a career move
I'm gonna miss you, God bless you
Maybe you'll lose your mind trying to turn back time
But I'll be standing
Losing my virginity was a career move
I'm gonna miss you, God bless you
Maybe you'll lose your mind trying to turn back time
But I'll be standing strong
