I look into your eyes

You turn away from me

There must be something here

You don't want me to see

Cause when you're out with him

You never hold his hand

There must be something that

I just don't understand

CHORUS:

I want you, you need me

We fit all too completely

I want you, to know that

I need you to complete me

You should be here with me

You need someone who cares

You'll look to him for love but

He just won't be there

He'll only break your heart

He'll hurt you in the end

But I'll be waiting here

I'll still be your best friend

CHORUS:

I want you, you need me

We fit all to completely

I want you, to know that

I need you to complete me

I want you, you need me

We fit all to completely

I want you, to know that

I need you to complete me

BRIDGE:

Complete me

'Plete me yeah

To complete me

I need you to complete me

'Plete me yeah

To complete me

CHORUS:

I want you, you need me

We fit all to completely

I want you, to know that

I need you to complete me

I want you, you need me

We fit all to completely

I want you, to know that

I need you to complete me
