Freedom

Every dawn becomes a new day
A time to love, a time to cry
Every river knows it's own way
And it's the same for you and I
Every heart must have a reason
A winding road, a midnight flight

Freedom, freedom
What we all need is freedom in our hearts
Freedom, freedom
What we all need is freedom in our hearts

We fight and die defending honor
The pride and prejudice we hide
A mother's tears, a father's anger
From trying to stop the pain and lies
So we pretend to look for answers
I blame you and you blame me

All we really need is freedom, freedom
What we all need is freedom in our hearts
Freedom, freedom
What we all need is freedom in our hearts

We don't need the pain anymore
To move our mountains, to reach our shores
What I've found is the choice I bring
I can do to let freedom go ahead

Freedom, freedom
What we all need is freedom in our hearts, yes

Freedom from the darkness
Freedom from the violence
Freedom from the hate
Freedom from the fear, Lord
Freedom from the hunger
Freedom from the forgiveness

Freedom, freedom

What we all need is freedom in our hearts
Freedom, freedom
What we all need is freedom in our hearts

Freedom from the pain and trouble
Free from all my [Incomprehensible] and squabbles
Nothing's standing in my way
I'm bounded by my [Incomprehensible]
I can read my troubled mind
And somehow leave the past behind
[Incomprehensible]

Freedom, freedom
What we all need is freedom in our hearts
Freedom, freedom
What we all need is freedom in our hearts
