ARMAGEDDON

words by Schwarz, music by Sleepy Hollow

The drums of war have started I tremble in my bones
The prophecies of madmen
Have suddenly come home

I see the storm clouds gather I hear the ocean roar
I feel the magma pulsing
Our world shall be no more

A comet burns across the sky, brings mountains low and valleys high, and makes the Earth shake with it's might

The whole Earth tremors as she shifts, and her hot blood pours out in rifts, to show our death in Hellish light.

Tsunamis pound us from the sea, and bring our cities to their knees, our screams of anguish fill the night

Upon the world man has become A horrid plague, an evil scum
To Nature's greatness he's grown numb

He's poisoned sea and land and sky
So all that swim and crawl and fly Shall in increasing numbers die

The beasts he alters at his will The forests fall beneath his till He's stricken Mother Nature ill

And so this horrid race of men Shall from the face of Earth be cleansed For us, I fear, it is the End

Volcanoes spew their embers high and clouds send lightning from the sky upon the Earth it does rain fire

The embers to great flames give birth creating, truly, Hell on Earth as Nature burns us in her ire

The flames, they jump from tree to town burn our pride, with our houses, down the Earth becomes our funeral pyre

And so the land is clothed in flame
And all the world cries out in pain
And yet the blood, it leaves no stain

When all is cool, t
