From Above

words by Franklin Melick, Music by Melick, Dell, & Castiel

Standing at the back door, looking through the field
The lights shine down on the trees from magnetic shields

Rubbed my eyes with my hands, thought it was a dream
Slapped my face, then shook my head and saw little men in green

Walked through the grass, step by step, closer to the light
Then realized the dream was real, something wasn't right

A beam came down, lifted me right up into the ship
I never thought the day would come to happen just like this!

chorus

Whoa...push has come to shove
Whoa...they're coming from above
You can't see them because you're being blind Aliens are smarter, our secrets they will find (Our secrets they will find)

Feeling very scared, I asked, "what do you want?"
The little men replied and said, "we just love to taunt"

They strapped me down to a table to look inside my brain
I knew if I ever got out of here my friends would say I'm insane!

Suddenly I felt so invaded, my life was such a wreck
I could not help but think to myself, "Oh my God, what is next?"

The door dropped open to the ground, they were letting me go
The day may come when they get YOU - sometimes you never know!
