Going to see the world to finally find out on my own Everything they've told me so far left me in the dark but when I'm gone
I'm taking my own direction to love
The only way to learn, the only way to be alive
The only way I'll ever find the love of my life
I think I'll manage to do this alone

I'll take you by the hand and lift you high above the world
Cause everything's so pretty here, and you are truly beautiful
I've found a new obsession on top of the world
So won't you take the time to look around and look at me
And tell that you've finally found the love of your life
It's such a moment to let go and die

Tell me, tell me, tell me you want it all
You want it all from me Whoa...
