The popstar radio crown is gone
The popstar radio sound is gone

I think that you were walking backwards
You said that you're sick of all the bastards
I thought that it was alright
When you told me last night
So I said that you could come along,
Come along

But when it goes down
And then it comes around

You want to have your cake & mine too
But everyone I know ignores you
The simple things around you
As question marks surround you
So you think you better
Run away, run away

But when it goes down
And then it comes around
The popstar radio crown is gone
The popstar radio sound is gone
The popstar radio crown is gone
The popstar radio sound is gone

I think you're swimming in your sorrow
You said you're sick because you gotta
Thought that it was alright
When you told me last night
So I said that you could come along
Come along

Cause when it goes down
And then it comes around
The popstar radio crown is gone
The popstar radio sound is gone
The popstar radio crown is gone
The popstar radio sound is gone
