I'm square, so much that I have not done
I'm so scared, like a... air giant
So many women on the planet, and I ain't put a...
Like point zero, zero, zero
You can keep going with it
I'm smart enough to know I shouldn't
Dumb enough to know I might
Strong enough to put up a fight
But I'm weak, and that's why I survive
But I write this shit, now cause my life's been shit
Now cause I think I'm the shit
Trust me, I hardly like my shit!
But it's better then when I was 16
You could barely finish the 16
But I wrote constantly, had a lot of time
Even got pussy at that age when it was all masturbation
A lot of isolation, hormones raising
..knew then, with the future...
Would she would say yes, too?
Would I say yes, too?
Would they would just give me?
But what would it cost me?
Would it discuss me?
Yeah, I'm almost the same
But the... I haven't done much
But still, I've done what I said I never would
And in the back of my mind would I thought I never could for the loss and the win!
Cost and the game, profit is the same!
