Sweet Sunrise
(music & lyrics by Ricardo Marques)

Tell me, darling,
'cause I've been wandering 'round the streets A moan in silence thinking how it would be if you turned the light off and said that we're not meant to be then I'd go runnin' down the street and never come back

Tell me, honey, do you feel free 'bout you and me?
I'd hold you tighter and let you sneak into my heart we'd be together, walking hand in hand away still you could go down the street and never come back Yeah, you could fly across the sea and never come back
How can my heart be wise, when you're just paradise?
Let all my hopes come crashing on the wall 'Cause still the sweetest smile that brings my reason down, and when darkness fades to light you're sweet sunrise

Time slows down, when you are not around And lights are brighter when you open up your smile I'll tell you one thing, babe let's run away today we can go down the street and never come back Yeah, we can fly across the sea and never come
