I am afterthought
Am I not?
I am nothing more
I am nothing more
I am the dark cloud, I made your day shine
Now you'll want the light, I am not your light

I am the sketch of a soul, not yet complete
Not quite unique, but I am defined
And I am not rough around the edges
I am a rock made smooth, in a shallow riverbed
Am I so shallow? Would I take you to my bed?

I am the gentleman
Or am I the cold calculator?

I am a tool, for I am used
The uncertainty is if I love you
I'm the sketch of a soul
I'm expendable, I'm erasable

I'm the dark cloud, in your summer sky
I cannot fight the winds of time
The seasons are changing and so must I
Simply stated, I loved you.goodbye
