You taught me how to feel
And for that I think I owe you
A "thank you" so thank you
For changing the only world I've known

You've completely rearranged my world
Doing nothing but existed in a girl
When, without a single doubt in my mind
I'm proud to say you changed my life

You give me hope, but you don't notice
You make me love, but you don't show it
Oh, no, no, no, no, oh, not to anyone
You think you're fooling everyone

I can see right through you like lies in fight
You're completely see-through
In case you haven't noticed, I've got my eyes on you
And I'm watching everything you do, yeah

Oh, love, yeah, I'm watching your every move

Because of you, I've learned to see
Pretty baby, with my heart in my soul
It never felt so right to lose control
Knowin' that you had your power over me

Now I believe in love for the first time
Baby, I ain't gonna lie to you
You have me spinning circles in my head
At the thought of touching you, just touching you

You give me hope, but you don't notice
You make me love, but you don't show it
Oh, no, you think you're fooling everyone
You think you're fooling everyone

I can see right through you like lies
You're completely see-through
In case you haven't noticed, I have my eyes on you
And I'm studying your every move

Yes, I'm watching your every move, oh

You give me hope, but you don't notice
You make me love, but you don't show it
Oh, no, no, no, no, oh, not to anyone
You think you're fooling everyone

I can see right through you like lies in fight
You're completely see-through
In case you haven't noticed, I've had my eyes on you
And I'm watching your every move

Yes, I'm watching your every move
