Don't the clocks turn back this evening?
Another hour for you to try and forget, to try and correct
your mistakes.
and yes I know I'm wrong
but there's two sides to every story, baby we are not the same and we will never feel the same.

And oh oh oh am I in trouble?
Darling I apologize,
I need you more than anything,
please come back with me tonight
oh oh oh I am in trouble
Darling i apologize,
I miss you more than anything,
Please don't ever leave my side.

These gentle twists, these gentle turns we're getting awfully close,
I have my suspicions that something's wrong,
You know I should of stayed and talked,
But oh I grabbed my shoes and i left the room singing oh oh oh what can I do?
Baby there is no need to hide.
Darling there is no need to fight.
