If i walk away
would it be the same
if i was afraid could i find a way if you fall through my hands like a beachful of sand would you still understand what i say you showered me with love and i wonder why storms are up above swimming in my mind i feel like im choking diamods are broken and falling around me like rain

oh waterfall, oh waterfall oh waterfall just take it all away blowing with the wind driven 'round the bend closer to the edge

time to breathe again but there's no explanation no real invitation i feel my creations again so get out while you can leave behind the senses get out while you can while youve got the stregnth im losing direction with so many questions they leave me no answers again

take me out and wash me down hold me under watch me drown hold me tight, the waterfall

time to breathe again (x5) breathe again...
