Verse 1:

Does anybody care about us,
Still living in the dirt and the dust?
When a day's work is done and I've dug your new pond.
Is it then that you hand me the brush?
Does anybody care about us?
Or are we really not worth all the fuss?
Nobody's gonna come help us climb up,
When they need us down here to clean up their muck.

Pre Chorus:

Digging graves to climb out of the ruts
We bear the scars from your cuts
But I'll always be the thorn in your side,
I won't give up give up, won't give up give up.

Chorus:

Does anybody care about us?
Does anybody care about us?
The little bit we've got left,
Were not gonna give up give up, give up.

Verse 2:

Does anybody care about us?
Or is it all about having blind trust,
That it's for my own good when my back meets your boot,
So you can step over the mud?
Does anybody care about us,
When the orders fall from above?
An eton crusader who say's they're our savior,
I swear I've seen this movie before.

Pre Chorus:

In the dirt the line has been drawn
Come the hour which side are you on?
I'll always be the thorn in your side,
I won't give up give up, won't give up give up.

Chorus:

Does anybody care about us?

Does anybody care about us?
The little bit we've got left,
Were not gonna give up give up, give up.

Bridge:

The final straw that broke the camel's back,
They took away the welfare then gave me the sack.
Well I've seen the rules that you call fair,
When it's profit, you keep it; but debt, we share.
The cycle of fear goes around forever,
The very idea that were in this together.

Chorus:

Is anybody gonna fight back?
It's just the start of an all out attack.
Been held down forever, if we stand together,
We'll manage to send them right back.

Is anybody gonna fight back?
Is anybody gonna fight back?
We cant be divided nor kettled and guided,
If were standing firm in our pack.

Is anybody gonna fight back?
Is anybody gonna fight back?
Is anybody gonna fight back?
Is anybody gonna fight back?
