There's three side to every story
Yours mine and the whole darn truth
Three side to every story
Yours mine and the whole darn truth
All these lies alibis tearin' up you and me
There's three sides to every story

I need to know
Where did you stay last night
Honey you been told
I ain't treatin' you right
Jivin' each other talkin' trash
If we don't stop honey we won't last
Honey there's three sides to every story

Where do we go from here
How does our love survive
The future looks so unclear
To the doubtful suspicious minds
Play too long it's a loosin' game
With no hand to hold
No one left to blame
Honey there's three sides to every story

Where do we go from here
How does our love survive
The future looks so unclear
To the doubtful suspicious minds
Play too long it's a loosin' game
With no hand to hold
Honey there's three sides to every story
