If I had a car, I'd take you to your mother's house You're out past your curfew and you're about to take off your blouse
If I had the guts, I'd tell you about the birds and the bees
And we could spend this sad winter night on our hands and knees

If I had your love
If I had your love
If I had your love
If I had your love

Boys and girls got nothing to do on the weekend
They're so bored with this planet, they wanna change bodies again
Boys and girls got nothing to do on the weekend
So they're building a big white spaceship and they're gonna escape with it

If I had your love
If I had your love
If I had your love
If I had your love

I would be a stranger in your head
I would be a monster in your bed
That would be so wrong they said
If I had your love

I would be a stranger in your head
I would be a monster in your bed
That would be so wrong they said
If I had your love

If I had your love
If I had your love
If I had your love
If I had your love

If I had your love

If I had your love
If I had your love
If I had your love
