I came here tonight with my discount DNA
Looking for a lover that was made out of clay
I came here tonight like an insect lazy man
Looking for a woman with an escape plan

She has to be really cold and thirsty
With wild tubes in her belly
Well, bugs can multiply in secret
And chew on the pulse of her electronic heart

The insect is safe in her arms
The insect is safe in her arms
The insect is safe in her arms
The insect is safe in her arms

I came here tonight with my cheap city halo
Looking for a dirty angel
I came her tonight when my skin turned into wood
From the frostbite of her motherhood

The insect is safe in her arms
The insect is safe in her arms
The insect is safe in her arms
The insect is safe in her arms
The insect is safe in her arms
The insect is safe in her arms
