like a ghost in the universe you became a liar in your afterlife the price tag on your body tells me you were binge eating at your birthday party please watch the blips on the screen and protect me from this simple dream

you can't accuse us of dying in Boston the same nightmare full of bacteria I take love in restricted areas there's a panic in the population in the city of a resignation are you innocent of hysteria cosmic love in restricted areas and when your brain caught on fire the smoke detector saved my life

you can't accuse us of dying in Boston
I take love in restricted areas
cosmic love in restricted areas
