"Sick Machine"

hey hey hey, don't forget to put that mouth into your pocket
so you can maintain the evil of your diet you could build a bone toilet with the calories that roll off your shoulder it could be a monument to our eating disorders

you are a virus
I am no longer a host for you you got no manners in the bedroom get the jumper cables upstairs

you got no manners in the bedroom get your mattress out of 5th gear

I became a drunk driver to find a vaccine for immunity against your sick machine you could build a support group with the germs that you bring on vacation you buy and sell my hopes as a Wall Street patient
