I've got a feelin' deep inside
I've got a feelin' I can't hide
It's true
Just between me and you

It started in my heart and hasn't stopped yet
And I don't know how big it's gonna get
But it's true
It's just between me and you

Just between us, I've seen us
Together in all my dreams
And when we touch, it's too much, it's electricity
Just between you and me

Just you and me and a night like this
You take my breath with one sweet kiss
Maybe two
Just between me and you

You can call it magic
And you can call it love
Call it forever, say you're thinkin' of it too
Just between me and you

Just between us, I've seen us
Together in all my dreams
And when we touch, it's too much, it's electricity
Just between you and me

This is more than one woman and man
This is greater than the sum of the two

I've got a feelin' deep inside
I've got a feelin' I can't hide
It's true
It got now just between me and you

Just between us, I've seen us together in all my dreams
And when we touch, it's too much, it's electricity
Just between you and me, yea, just between you and me

Just between you and me, you and me
